

ALL4SCIENCE - Privacy Policy

Date of last revision: January 14th, 2018

This privacy policy outlines how we make use of the information we collect from you when you visit All4Science.com and any other websites owned by All4Science: www.all4science.de, www.all4science.es, www.all4science.it, and www.all4science.fr.

All4Science.com reserves the right to modify this privacy policy at any time. To protect your interests, please visit this page periodically to review the current terms of our privacy policy.

PLEASE NOTE THAT ALL4SCIENCE WILL NEVER SELL YOUR DATA OR GIVE AWAY YOUR INFORMATION TO OTHER ENTITIES.

1. Collected Information

Some information is requested and processed when you register to become a member of our community or if you create a campaign.

Depending on the type of registration, donor or proposer, you are asked to provide:

- personal information: name, email and postal addresses, telephone number, country of residence, login, and password details.
- Details of any requests or donations you make through All4Science. All donation information you submit is collected and used by our payment processors in accordance with their privacy policies. All4Science doesn't store your payment details apart from the last four digits of your account, expiration date, and country, which we require for tax, government regulatory, and security purposes.
- Communications you send to us and information that you submit to All4Science in the form of comments or messages to other users.

Additional information, such as your IP address, operating system, browser information, date and time you access our site, may be collected whenever you interact with us or our website. We use this information to help us make our site more useful, to learn about the number of visitors to our site, the types of technology our visitors are using to visit our website, and to present relevant information to you based on your website browsing requests.

2. Cookies

Whenever you interact with our website, All4Science.com may place a "cookie" in the browser files of your computer. Cookies are data files that help your browser communicate with All4Science.com.

Most browsers are set to accept cookies by default. You can reject or block cookies by changing your browser settings. However, if your browser rejects or blocks a cookie, it may impact your ability to use some of our website and our service.

3. Use of Information

We use the information we collect for the following purposes:

- to protect your account and your personal information;
- to enable us to improve, promote, and protect All4Science.

We will not disclose or transfer your personal information to any third parties.

4. Online Security

The online transaction processing is provided by Stripe using the highest commercially available encryption technology - Extended Validation (EV) SSL Certificate encryption. All confidential information is automatically encrypted before it is transmitted, to protect the data from being read and interpreted.

5. Contact Us

We welcome feedback if you have any questions regarding our privacy policy or the use of your information. For additional information about our Privacy Policy, please contact us at info@all4science.com or mail us at:
